Representations

19. In providing the Confidential Information, the Information Provider makes no representations, either express or implied as to its adequacy, sufficiency, completeness, correctness or its lack of defect of any kind, including any patent or trade mark infringement that may result from the use of such information. The Information Provider will not be liable for any damage or loss that may occur from such provision or use of the Confidential Information.

Termination

20. Either party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the other party. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all rights and obligations under this Agreement will terminate at that time.

Assignment

21. Except where a party has changed its corporate name or merged with another corporation, this Agreement may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by either party in whole or part without the prior written consent of the other party to this Agreement.

Amendments

22. This Agreement may only be amended or modified by a written instrument executed by both the Information Provider and the Information Receiver.

Governing Law

23. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of Queensland.

General Provisions

24. Time is of the essence in this Agreement.

25. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts.

26. Headings are inserted for the convenience of the parties only and are not to be considered when interpreting this Agreement. Words in the singular mean and include the plural and vice versa. Words in the masculine mean and include the feminine and vice versa.

27. The clauses, paragraphs, and subparagraphs contained in this Agreement are intended to be read and construed independently of each other. If any part of this Agreement is held to be invalid, this invalidity will not affect the operation of any other part of this Agreement.

28. The Information Receiver is liable for all costs, expenses and expenditures including, and without limitation, the complete legal costs incurred by the Information Provider in enforcing this Agreement as a result of any default of this Agreement by the Information Receiver.

29. The Information Provider and the Information Receiver acknowledge that this Agreement is reasonable, valid and enforceable. However, if a court of competent jurisdiction finds any of the provisions of this Agreement to be too broad to be enforceable, it is the intention of the Information Provider and the Information Receiver that such provision be reduced in scope by the court only to the extent deemed necessary by that court to render the provision reasonable and enforceable, bearing in mind that it is the intention of the Information Receiver to give the Information Provider the broadest possible protection to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information.

30. No failure or delay by the Information Provider in exercising any power, right or privilege provided in this Agreement will operate as a waiver, nor will any single or partial exercise of such rights, powers or privileges preclude any further exercise of them or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege provided in this Agreement.

31. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, as the case may be, of the Information Provider and the Information Receiver.

32. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and there are no further items or provisions, either oral or otherwise.
